

Vermont Communication Task Force

Who we are

We believe all persons are:

- competent,
- can communicate, and
- must receive the support, training, and technology needed to actively participate in all aspects of life.

Task Force members have experience and knowledge of communication, literacy, and assistive technology.

What we do

We are a statewide group that formed in 2000. We provide information and training to high school age youth and adults with developmental disabilities, family members, educators, service providers, and community members.

What we offer

Training is offered to individuals supporting high school age youth and adults with developmental disabilities to communicate more effectively.

Technical assistance may be provided to service coordinators and individual support teams.

Our Communication Consultants List and Communication Resource Guide are available online.
